Whereas the Customer has requested the Bank to grant it on loan the sum of fifteen thousand maltese liri (Lm15,000) hereinafter called "the Loan", for the purpose of purchasing the property at Bahar-ic-Caghaq, limits of Gharghur, hereinafter better described, which sum the Customer delegates the Bank, which accepts, to pay directly to the Vendor in the second part of this deed as part of the purchase price of the same property, offering as security a General Hypothec over all its present and future property and a Special Hypothec and also a Special Privilege competent to the Bank in terms of law, and this over and above the joint and several suretyship mentioned hereunder.

And whereas the Bank has acceded to the request of the Customer and hereby accedes to grant it on loan the said sum of Lm15,000 subject to the limitations and conditions set out hereunder, which loan is withdrawable in one amount for the aforestated purpose.

It is agreed that the loan shall bear interest at rates not exceeding the maximum rate allowed by law, this interest to be reckoned on the amount due for balance of loan by the Customer from time to time in accordance with recognised banking practice, said rate of interest to be fixed by the Bank in its sole discretion from time to time.

The Bank reserves unto itself the right to lay down such conditions as it considers necessary for the repayment of the loan over a period which conditions shall be or have been notified in writing to the Customer subject to the overriding condition that the outstanding balance of loan and interest accrued thereon shall be repayable on demand a simple request in writing to be deemed good and sufficient notice for this purpose.

In warranty of the proper observance of the conditions of this deed and in particular of the repayment of the loan and of the payment of interest accruing thereon, the Customer hereby grants in favour of the Bank, which accepts, a General Hypothec over all his property in general present and future over and above a Special Hypothec and Special Privilege competent to the Bank in terms of law on the property at Bahar-ic-

Caghaq, limits of Gharghur, hereinafter better described.

Moreover in order to better guarantee the repayment of the loan, the payment of interest thereon and the faithful performance and observance of all the obligations undertaken by the Company on this deed, appearer Keith Attard proprio hereby stands joint and several surety with the Company, in favour of the Bank, which accepts, and secures this obligation by means of a General Hypothec over all his property present and future, over and above a Special Hypothec on the unnumbered first floor maisonette named "Il-Horza", underlying third party property, and on the unnumbered garage underlying said maisonette, both situated in Taliana Lane, Gzira, bounded together on the east by Taliana Lane, on the north by property of M.G. Construction Limited, and on the south by property of John Gregory, and are subject together said maisonette and garage to the annual and perpetual sub-groundrent of sixty maltese liri (Lm60).

The Customer undertakes to give the Bank full details and all information relating to his financial position as requested by the Bank from time to time and to accord to the Bank every facility for the verification thereof.

Further the Customer undertakes at the Bank's request to insure his property against all normal risks with a reputable insurance company and to have the Bank's interest noted on the relative insurance policies. Further the Customer authorises the Bank to effect all such insurances on his property as it deems fit at his expense.

All fees and expenses in connection with this deed are to be borne by the Customer who further undertakes to refund to the Bank all expenses including legal fees and administrative charges made for bringing up to date from time to time the researches into his liabilities and transfers.

The Company and Surety hereby bind themselves with the acceptance of the Bank not to charge in favour of any third party the property which they have specially hypothecated in favour of the Bank on this or any other deed, nor to transfer such property in any manner including by title of lease to any third party without the prior written consent of the Bank. Should the Company and/or the Surety be in breach of this condition, the Bank shall have the right to call in the facility and demand full payment of all sums of money due whether by way of capital, interest or any other nature from the Company and the Surety.

For the purposes of Land Registration Act, it is being declared that the property described in this deed does not form a part of a Compulsory Land Registration Area.

The Company delegates the Bank to pay the Notary on his first demand an amount representing Notarial fees and expenses relative to this deed by debit of the Company's account/s with the Bank. It shall not be incumbent on the Bank to verify whether such amount is justified.

The parties agree that for the benefit of Mid-Med Bank p.l.c. they hereby submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Maltese courts.

The hypothecary guarantees granted by the Surety on this deed are also subject to the conditions mentioned in the Bank's printed guarantee form signed or to be signed by him.

By virtue of the second part of this deed, the Vendor hereby sells, transfers and conveys unto the Purchaser who hereby accepts, purchases and acquires the two adjacent shops in shell form, without name or number, unofficially marked as shops letters "A" and "B" respectively and outlined in red on a plan attached herewith and marked Document "A", said shops are underlying and overlying other property of the Vendor Company or its successors in title, with which property the shops have in common the drains and drainage system, and are situated in a projected unnamed square in Bahar-ic-Caghaq, limits of Gharghur, and are bounded together being contiguous on the west by said unnamed square, and on all other sides by other property of the Vendor Company or its successors in title, as subject together the said two shops being transferred to the annual and perpetual groundrent of fifty maltese liri (Lm50) which is being imposed on this deed by the Vendor with the acceptance of the Purchaser, payable yearly in advance with effect from date of this deed, otherwise free and unencumbered with all their several rights and appurtenances, including also the property of the front garden fronting said shops and of the stairs leading from the street, and with free and vacant possession.

The whole block of which the property being transferred forms part is bounded on the north by Triq is-Sikka, on the west by the said new unnamed square, on the south by property of spouses Pullicino and on the east by property of Joseph Caruana.

This sale is being made and accepted in consideration of the price of nineteen thousand maltese liri (Lm19,000) out of which price the Purchaser is presently paying to the Vendor, who accepts, the sum of four thousand maltese liri (Lm4000), whereas the Bank as delegated by the Purchasers in the first part of this deed is presently paying to the Vendor, who accepts, the balance of fifteen thousand maltese liri (Lm15,000), and the Vendor tenders due receipt to the Purchaser and to the Bank in full and final settlement and full and final acquittance of the said purchase price.

For the purpose of Section number sixty five (65) of Act number seventeen (XVII) of the year nineteen hundred and ninety three (1993), it is being declared that the property being transferred forms part of a larger block of buildings which the Vendor Company constructed on the site previously occupied by the unnumbered bungalow named "Villa Perla" with annexed garage and surrounding gardens in Triq is-Sikka, Baharic-Caghaq, limits of Gharghur, which it had acquired by onerous title from Vincent Saviour Baldacchino and his wife Susan Baldacchino by virtue of a deed in the records of Notary Pierre Cassar of the twenty eighth (28) day of November, nineteen hundred and ninety six (1996).

Said spouses Baldacchino had in turn acquired the same property also by onerous title from Doctor Patrick Pullicino by virtue of a deed in the records of Notary Joseph Cilia of the twenty seventh (27) day of January, nineteen hundred and ninety two (1992), as corrected by another deed in the records of Notary Eugene Montanaro of the tenth (10) day of September, nineteen hundred and ninety three (1993).

The Purchasers shall not be entitled to nor shall be liable for contributions in respect of party walls.

The Vendor declares that the property being transferred and the whole block have been constructed in accordance with the building permits issued by the competent authorities and that permit allows the shops being transferred to be used as such.

All expenses in connection with building permits, road formation, asphaltting and drainage have been fully paid up. However the Purchaser shall bear his "pro rata" share amounting to three hundred and forty five malta liri (Lm345) of the expenses incurred to connect his property with the main drainage system and with the common drains.

The facade of the property being transferred shall be uniform with the rest of the block and the Purchaser shall bear his "pro rata" share for its completion.

The Vendor nomine undertakes to complete the facade and drainage system within two months from date hereof.

A laudemium equivalent to one year's groundrent shall be payable to the Vendor Company on every future eventual transfer of the property being sold by this deed.

The Purchaser shall have the right to install and maintain a television aerial and/or satellite dish of normal size and one water tank on the roof of the block in the site indicated by the Vendor, as also the right of access thereto for purposes of maintenance and/or repair.

In the event that the Vendor shall construct further storey/s on the existing roof of the block, all expenses incurred in connection with the transfer of all services from the present roof to the new existing roof shall be borne by the Vendor nomine.

The garages underlying the property being transferred may only be used as a store or as a private car garage.

The Vendor furthermore is hereby imposing a servitude on the shops being transferred in favour of the property still retained by him in the sense that:

(a) the shops being transferred may not be used as catering establishments, bar restaurant or other similar use, and no equipment may be used which may cause nasty smells, noise or fumes, and

(b) no activity may be carried on in the shops being transferred which may cause inconvenience to the neighbours.

No animals may be kept in the property being transferred.

Should the Purchaser be in breach of any of the abovementioned conditions, he shall incur a penalty of one hundred and fifty liri (Lm150) for each day of default.

The Purchaser undertakes to waterproof by means of membrane the the floor of the front garden.

The said conditions shall continue to bind the Purchaser and/or his successors in title even in the case that the groundrent imposed on this deed is redeemed.

Any future eventual "land tax" shall be borne by the Purchaser.

The Vendor nomine hereby warrants in favour of the Purchaser, who accepts, the peaceful possession and unrestricted enjoyment according to law of the property being sold by means of a general hypothec over all the present and future property of the Vendor Company.

For the purpose of the same Act XVII of 1993 aforementioned, the duty on documents in connection with this deed therefore amounts to one thousand four hundred and thirty maltese liri (Lm1430).

For the purposes of Act number eighteen (XVIII) of the year nineteen hundred and ninety three (1993), the Provisional Capital Gains Tax due in connection with this deed amounts to one thousand three hundred and thirty maltese liri (Lm1330).

Finally by virtue of third part of this same deed, the Bank hereby gives its consent for the reduction of the hypothecary inscription registered in its favour in the Public Registry of Malta, Volume I, progressive number eighteen thousand eight hundred and fifty seven of the year nineteen hundred and ninety seven (I.18857/97) in the sense only that the property transferred to the Customer in the second part of this deed is to be waived from the effects of this note, whereas the Bank otherwise retains firm and unimpaired all its rights arising from the same hereinmentioned note I.18857/97.

This deed has been done read and published after due explanation by me the undersigned Notary of its contents to the parties proprio et nomine at Malta, Valletta, Strait Street, number one hundred and sixty eight (168).

I. 2949/1999

In virtue of a deed in my records of the seventeenth (17th) day of September of the year two thousand and thirteen (2013) the creditor, Bank of Valletta p.l.c. C2833 erroneously gave its consent for the total cancellation of the note of hypothec and /or Privilege registered in the Public Registry of Malta in Volume letter H and two thousand nine hundred and forty nine of the year one thousand nine hundred and ninety nine (2949/1999) which note was cancelled by means of note of reference five thousand eight hundred and thirty eight of the year two thousand and thirteen (R. 5,838/2013). Therefore the said note of hypothec 2949/1999 is to remain valid and should not be subject to the erroneous cancellation as mentioned above by means of note of reference 5,838/2013.

Therefore by means of this correctory note, the said note of hypothec 2949/1999 is regaining its state prior the erroneous cancellation above-mentioned and thus the same said note of hypothec 2949/1999 is being revived to its state prior the erroneous cancellation stated above.

For all intents and purpose at law and for avoidance of doubt, apart from the said erroneous cancellation mentioned above, the same said creditor in the same said deed in my records of the 17th day of September of the year 2013 gave its consent for the cancellation of the note of hypothec and/or Privilege registered in the Public Registry of Malta in Volume letter H and numebred fifteen thousand one hundred and two of the year one thousand nine hundred and ninety nine (H 15,102/1999) as cancelled by the same said note of refence 5,383/2013 which cancellation of the said note of hypothec 15,102/1999 should remain valid.

The said deed in my records of the 17th September 2013 was corrected by means of a corrector deed published in my records of the twenty-fifth (25th) day of March of the year two thousand and fifteen (2015).
